About the Medical Insurance

Choosing the right health insurance plan is important for you and your family. Following are some of the basic reasons you should obtain health coverage:

- Health insurance gives you a sense of security knowing that a sudden illness or serious injury will not drain your bank account, or worse, your retirement savings. Health insurance protects your financial future by helping pay for expensive doctor visits and treatments.
- Seeing doctors who are in-network with your health insurance plan also gives you the advantage of receiving care with lowered costs. When doctors are in-network, you have access to lower rates negotiated by the insurance company, meaning you owe less than if you did not have insurance.
- Health insurance covers many preventative services without you having to pay a deductible or copayment. Preventative care is intended to prevent or catch diseases and other health problems before they become serious. Preventative services that are covered in full include various health screening and immunizations.
- Having health insurance will also help you pay for prescription drugs, whether through reduced fees or copays.

Important Notices

If you are declining enrollment for yourself or your dependents (including your spouse) because of other health insurance or group health plan coverage, you may be able to enroll yourself and your dependents in this plan if you or your dependents lose eligibility for that other coverage (or if the employer stops contributing toward you or your dependents' other coverage). However, you must request enrollment within 30 days after you or your dependents' other coverage ends (or after the employer stops contributing toward the other coverage).

In addition, if you have a new dependent as a result of marriage, birth, adoption, or placement for adoption, you may be able to enroll yourself and your dependents. However, you must request enrollment within 30 days after the marriage, birth, adoption, or placement for adoption.

Finally, you and/or your dependents may have special enrollment rights if coverage is lost under Medicaid or a State health insurance ("SCHIP") program, or when you and/or your dependents gain eligibility for state premium assistance. You have 60 days from the occurrence of one of these events to notify the company and enroll in the plan.

To request special enrollment or obtain more information, contact your employer's Human Resource department.

Market Place Information:

Can I Save Money on my Health Insurance Premiums in the Marketplace?

You may qualify to save money and lower your monthly premium, but only if your employer does not offer coverage, or offers coverage that doesn't meet certain standards. The savings on your premium that you're eligible for depends on your household income.

Does Employer Health Coverage Affect Eligibility for Premium Savings through the Marketplace?

Yes. If you have an offer of health coverage from your employer that meets certain standards, you will not be eligible for a tax credit through the Marketplace and may wish to enroll in your employer's health plan. However, you may be eligible for a tax credit that lowers your monthly premium or a reduction in certain cost-sharing if your employer does not offer coverage to you at all or does not offer coverage that meets certain standards. If the cost of a plan from your employer that would cover you (and not any other members of your family) is more than 9.56% of your household income for the year, or if the coverage your employer provides does not meet the "minimum value" standard set by the Affordable Care Act, you may be eligible for a tax credit.

The Marketplace can help you evaluate your coverage options, including your eligibility for coverage through the Marketplace and its cost. Please visit HealthCare.gov for more information, including an online application for health insurance coverage and contact information for a Health Insurance Marketplace in your area.

Women's Health and Cancer Rights Act of 1998

If you have had or are going to have a mastectomy, you may be entitled to certain benefits under the Women's Health and Cancer Rights Act of 1998 (WHCRA). For individuals receiving mastectomy-related benefits, coverage will be provided in a manner determined in consultation with the attending physician and the patient, for:

- All stages of reconstruction of the breast on which the mastectomy has been performed;
- Surgery and reconstruction of the other breast to produce symmetrical appearance;
- Prosthesis and Treatment of physical complications of all stages of mastectomy, including lymphedemas.

These benefits may be subject to annual deductibles and coinsurance provisions as may be deemed appropriate and are consistent with those established for other benefits under the plan.

Newborns' and Mothers' Health Protection Act of 1996

Group health plans and health insurance issuers generally may not, under Federal law, restrict benefits for any hospital length of stay in connection with childbirth for the mother or newborn child to less than 48 hours following a vaginal delivery, or less than 96 hours following a cesarean section. However, Federal law generally does not prohibit the mother or newborn's attending provider, after consulting with the mother, from discharging the mother or her newborn earlier than 48 hours (or 96 hours as applicable). In any case, plans and issuers may not, under Federal law, require that a provider obtain authorization from the plan or the insurance carrier for prescribing a length of stay not in excess of 48 hours (or 96 hours).

Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA)

If an employee is granted a leave of absence (Leave) by the employer as required by the Federal Family and Medical Leave Act, s/he may continue to be covered under the plan for the duration of the Leave under the same conditions as other employees who are currently employed and covered by the plan. If the employee chooses to terminate coverage during the Leave, or if coverage terminates because of nonpayment of any required contribution, coverage may be reinstated on the date the employee returns to work immediately following the end of the Leave. Charges incurred after the date of reinstatement will be paid as if the employee had been continuously covered.

Children's Health Insurance Program Reauthorization Act of 2009 (CHIP)

Effective April 1, 2009, employees and dependents that are eligible for healthcare coverage under the health plan, but are not enrolled, will be permitted to enroll in the plan if they lose eligibility for Medicaid or CHIP coverage or become eligible for a premium assistance subsidy under Medicaid or CHIP.

Individuals must request coverage under the plan within 60 days of the loss of Medicaid or CHIP coverage or the determination of eligibility for a premium assistance subsidy.

CHIPRA allows states to offer eligible low-income children and their families a premium assistance subsidy to help pay for employer-sponsored coverage. If this State offers a premium assistance subsidy, you will be notified in writing of the potential opportunities available for premium assistance in the plan year after model notices are issued.

Your Rights Under USERRA

If you leave your job to perform military service, you have the right to elect to continue your existing employer-based health plan coverage for you and your dependents for up to 24 months while in the military. Even if you don't elect to continue coverage during your military service, you have the right to be reinstated in your employer's health plan when you are reemployed, generally without any waiting periods or exclusions (e.g... pre-existing condition exclusions) except for service-connected illnesses or injuries.

Enforcement

The U.S. Department of Labor Veterans Employment and Training Service (VETS) is authorized to investigate and resolve complaints of USERRA violations. For assistance in filing a complaint, or for any other information on USERRA, contact VETS at 1-866-4-USA-DOL or visit its website at <https://www.dol.gov/vets>. Congress passed the ACA, a significant health care reform law, in March 2010. The ACA is a far-reaching law that affects all aspects of the health care system. Consumers, health care providers, insurance companies and employers are all impacted. The parts of the law that most affect you are described below.

Health Insurance Marketplaces

The ACA calls for the creation of health insurance marketplaces, also known as Affordable Health Insurance Exchanges, for individuals and small businesses to purchase private health insurance. The Exchanges will allow for direct comparisons of private health insurance options on the basis of price, quality and other factors, and will coordinate eligibility for premium tax credits and other affordability programs. If you can purchase coverage through your employer, you may not need to use the Exchanges. However, uninsured people who want to comply with the individual mandate will be able to use the Exchanges to fulfill their requirement.

Your Employer Provided Insurance Coverage

Under healthcare reform, most large employers are providing coverage that both meets the minimum value requirements (Bronze or better) and is affordable (single coverage costing less than 9.56% of an employee's W-2 income). Your plan is likely better and cheaper than what the law requires, and you pay your share of premiums through pre-tax deductions, which save you 25-35% or more of your cost. As a result, you are not likely to find you qualify for subsidized coverage in the Exchange marketplaces unless unusual circumstances exist.

Annual Limits and Pre-existing Conditions

As noted earlier, annual dollar limits cannot be placed on coverage for essential health benefits beginning in 2014. Additionally, the ACA compels insurers to cover individuals with pre-existing conditions. Insurance companies cannot turn you down or charge you more because of your condition, nor can they refuse to cover treatment for pre-existing conditions. The only exception is for grandfathered individual health insurance plans—the kind you buy yourself, not through an employer. If you have one of these plans, you can switch to an Exchange plan during open enrollment and get coverage for your condition.
